May E. Gave the Talent a Great Shock by Winning.

Julge McMahon's Colt Was a Pronibitive Favorite for the Fourth Bace at Alexander Island, but Finished Behind Bis Field-His Crace Found the Sticky Coing to Ets Liking and Best Some Very Good Horses.

Never was the glorious uncertainty of horse racing better demonstrated than at the Alexander Island truck yesterday, when such cattle's Mary E., Uncle Jim, and Saprano II finished to front of Ponce de Leon, a norse which turmen term a first-class so long plater. The ruce referred to was the fourth on the card and the distance a mile and a sixteenth. Ponce de Leon, Westchester, Lum, Uncle Jun, Soprano H, and May E. were the contestants and choices in the order named, the former being quoted at 1 to 5; while the inner could be booked at 30 to 4, and at one time 150 to 1 could be ned

In the race Ponce, as usual, went to the front soon after the start and cated along athis own pace for more than half the distance Before nearing the lower turn, however, glose observers of the rare could notice Johnson riding hard and the invertee laboring under 1 un slut ent. The nearer the horses come to the limish the more Ponce began to drop back, coming in absolutely last. May E. back coming in absolutely last. May E-bent Westelester for the race in a bard drive, by a bead. Neither the condition of the krack nor the weights were against—the favorite's chances. It was simply one of these chases when comelling seemed to be wrong. The officials will tu-vestigate the running of Ponce de Leon, and partition describes ments the centre of the until further develorments, the entry of the horse will be relieved.

As the seather had cleared up and a very full programme was offered, it was no merprise that a very large crowd had passed through the gate. Seventeen bookmakers supplied the wants of the speculative element. Superiod the wants of the speculative element. Sanaritan won the litst race by three parts of a length from the 20 to 1 shot. Columbias Win Three Straight and Are in Second Place-All High Rollers

The Columbia Athletic Club team won a full set of three games in the lengue series last night from the Washington Arhietic Club. It was a great victory for the winners and to lose such games as they played was no discredit to the losers. It was a remarkable series, in that no game bowied was below the 700 mark. By winning last night's games the Columby vaning has higher displacing the W. A. C., at the same time it makes the record of winning eight out of its nine last games played. The team has now struck its gait.
